Tyre صور

At the edge of the Mediterranean stands Tyre, once a jewel of the Phoenician world.

A city that birthed purple, the royal dye. A port of alchemy and artisanship, where merchants carried not only goods but stories, knowledge, and prayers across the sea.

ويا مدينةً أُمضتْ في قلبي
نشيدَها،
وتغنى البحرُ بذاكرتها... فتجلّى
في صدري الحنين

"O city who has
imprinted its hymn
upon my heart,
and the sea sang
of her memory...
then in my chest,
longing manifested."

WOVEN LEGACIES

The design draws from the intricate world of Persian carpets textiles that once passed through Tyrian ports on camelback and sail.

Each curve and knot reflects centuries of exchange: Arab, Persian, Phoenician, Levantine. These motifs are not decoration they are scripts of meaning, symbols of home, journey, and return.

ARABESQUE IN SLVER

Made in solid 925 sterling silver,
the pendant holds its form like Tyre holds its ruins, not broken,
but breathing through time.

This wearable heirloom is like a seal of an ancient world.

A tribute to the sea-bound city where purple was born, where cultures collided and created beauty.
